

ACCOMMODATIONS: MORE GRANULAR CONTROL

The next phase for Accommodations includes the option for faculty to set the percentage of extra time for those students who need more time to complete a timed assessment. When adding a time limit accommodation, faculty may specify any percentage of extra time that is needed to honor a time limit accommodation.

The screenshot displays the 'Accommodations' settings for a student named Felipe Guerrero. The interface is divided into two main sections. On the left, there is a header for the student's name and a three-dot menu. The right section contains the following elements:

- Test Accommodations: A title bar with a close button.
- Select accommodations for this student. When you create graded items, students with accommodations appear in the settings.: A descriptive text.
- Felipe Guerrero Student: A header for the student's accommodations.
- Due date accommodation: An unchecked checkbox with a description: "Students with a due date accommodation never have their work marked late. When students with accommodations are in a group, all students in that group inherit the accommodation."
- Time limit accommodation: A checked checkbox with a description: "Students with a time limit accommodation have more time to finish their work during timed assessments."
- Custom percentage: A sub-section with a selected radio button and a text input field containing '15' followed by a percentage sign. This sub-section is highlighted with a red box.
- Unlimited time: An unchecked radio button.
- Cancel and Save buttons: Located at the bottom of the interface.
